Beef pricing and information – EFFECTIVE FOR 2023 Beef – Anticipated availability July/August 2023 – PRICE CHANGE DUE TO INCREASED FEED CHANGE.

Thank you for your interest in Horse Creek Angus beef. We pride ourselves on growing and producing wholesome quality beef for your table. We have several returning customers each year who love the beef we produce.

Our cattle are raised on the range in southeast Wyoming and then are grain finished for the most flavorful and tender beef. We have had to increase our price by .55/cents per pound. The cost of feed has increased this year.

Our pricing is as follows:

We sell beef in $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$ and whole quantities at the price of \$3.30 per pound of carcass weight. The buyer also pays the processing cost. Below are estimates for the various quantities we sell. This can vary based on live weight and your desired cuts. Buyers for half or whole, are provided a cut sheet to select desired cuts, some prices can vary if specific requests. For customers that purchase a $\frac{1}{4}$ they will receive a variety of cuts, all boneless.

Fall cattle will be processed at Bear Mountain Beef in Hawk Springs, WY. This is a new facility that is much closer to our customers. Their advertised processing rates as of October 2022 is $1.20/lb. This is subject to change by Bear Mountain Beef. We will deliver beef to the processor and customers are responsible for picking up the beef unless prior arrangements are made. Customer pays Horse Creek Angus, LLC for the beef and will pay Processor direct for processing, unless arrangements have been made for Horse Creek Angus to deliver your beef.

Pricing effective January 1, 2023, is as follows:

All estimates are based on estimated 800 lb. whole carcass weight:

$\frac{1}{4}$ beef – Approximate cost \$900-\$950 +/- for 120-150 +/- net pounds of meat of all boneless cuts and ground beef. Based upon \$3.30/lb. price on the rail (carcass weight) and approximately \$1.20/lb. processing fee.

$\frac{1}{2}$ beef – Approximate cost \$1800-\$1900 +/- for 240-285 +/- net pounds of meat of all boneless cuts and ground beef. Based upon \$3.30/lb. price on the rail (carcass weight) and approximately \$1.20/lb. processing fee.

Whole beef – Approximate cost $3600-$3700 +/- for 480-570 +/- net pounds of meat of all boneless cuts and ground beef. Based upon $3.30/lb. price on the rail (carcass weight) and approximately $1.20/lb. processing fee.

The above prices are estimates and are dependent upon each beef carcass weight and individual processor fees. We do require a \$100 deposit for $\frac{1}{4}$ and \$200 deposit for $\frac{1}{2}$ or whole.

We appreciate you considering our beef. We do accept credit cards.
